

Election Worker Certification Program (EWCP)

Informational Notes for HarrisVotes.com

- The current Election Worker Certification Program (EWCP) (Pilot Phase) comes to completion in the spring of 2026. All currently enrolled participants in the Pilot Program will be required to attend the in-person 2026 March Primary Election Training Program.
- The second phase of the EWCP will begin in the second half of March 2026.
- The new certification program will NOT be an assessment.
- The new certification program will be two one-day training courses at the Elections Headquarters on Morales Road. One course will occur in March/April, and the other in September/October.
- Each one-day training session will consist of a six-hour session with a one-hour lunch (on your own) each day. The training will consist of (1) interactive, scenario-based training experiences, (2) Texas Election Code deep-dives, and (3) in-depth studies on forms and procedures.
- There will be 300 seats available for the second phase of the EWCP. Those in the Pilot Phase will be offered a registration slot first and may accept or decline the opportunity to continue.
- Registration for the second phase of the EWCP will go live on Harrisvotes.com on March 13, 2026, between 12:00 and 1:00 PM, with more details provided then.
